

XM Radio should have the same right to broadcast traffic and weather as the local stations in select markets. XM subscribers should not be penalized simply because they choose to pay a fee to listen to commercial free radio. Tell the NAB to have fewer advertisements and they might have more listeners.